Welcome

Dear Students,

On behalf of Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, it is my great pleasure to welcome you to Paris for your participation in the Una Europa Student Congress 2025. It is both an honour and a joy to host you here, in the very place where, eight years ago, the European Universities Initiative was launched, a moment of powerful symbolism.

For centuries, the Sorbonne has been a symbol of intellectual freedom, dialogue, and openness. These values, which have shaped the history of our university, remain at the heart of our commitment within Una Europa: to build together the university of the future, founded on cooperation, innovation, and cultural diversity.

This year's congress theme, "Global Minds, Local Impact: Uniting Cultures Through Student Initiatives," perfectly reflects the spirit that brings us together: students who are open to the world, engaged in transforming society, and convinced that global impact begins with local action.

At Paris 1, we deeply believe in the power of student initiative. Our university hosts an especially rich and active network of student associations that foster creativity, solidarity, and collective engagement. These values fully resonate with the ambitions of this congress, whose workshops aim to strengthen your skills, stimulate teamwork, and support your joint projects.

Above all, let us remember that the Una Europa alliance exists thanks to you. Through your participation, your ideas, and your projects, you bring this great European academic community to life. This Student Congress is a unique opportunity to build connections across borders, to imagine new forms of university cooperation together, and to lay the foundations for lasting collaborations and genuine friendships.

I wish you stimulating discussions, enriching discoveries, and, above all, the joy of building together a living and human Europe of knowledge.

Welcome to Paris 1, welcome to the Sorbonne.

With my highest regards,

Fabienne Peraldi-Leneuf

Vice President, Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne
Chair of the Board, Una Europa Alliance

Instructor(s): Afev facilitators

For 30 years, the Afev association has been creating links between campuses and neighbourhoods by developing solidarity programs in which thousands of students engage with children, young people, and residents of working-class neighbourhoods. While constantly adapting to societal challenges and changes, Afev relies on four main pillars that form the basis of its uniqueness and commitment to solidarity:

- Taking action against social and educational inequalities
- Mobilizing students in solidarity programs
- Creating ideal conditions for committed students to get involved, thanks to dedicated salaried teams in France, Belgium, and Spain
- Conducting advocacy campaigns to raise awareness among the public and decision-makers about educational inequalities and youth engagement.

Description:

At the end of this training, participants will:

- Have identified the skills they have developed during their engagement.
- Know how to highlight their engagement experience in writing and orally.
- Know how to define a skill, a soft skill, and a hard skill.
- Have received advice on how to make their applications stand out.
- Have a tool for analysing their experience and have begun to build a narrative around their experience.

Skills Workshop: Collaborating Across Borders – Navigating our Intercultural World - Wednesday Session

Time: 3:30 p.m. - 5 p.m. CET

Venue: Room 6. 4th Floor. Staircase M. Centre Panthéon, 12 Place du Panthéon 75005.

Instructor: Danielle Taylor

Danielle Taylor is a researcher and teacher (maître de conference) in intercultural management and HR at Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne. Her research focuses on group dynamics in global virtual teams. These interests stem from her international experiences having grown up in the U.S., living in France for over 12 years, and conducting regular projects with international colleagues from Canada to the Netherlands to Thailand.

Description:

How can we better understand each other from a cultural perspective? This interactive workshop will explore the concept of culture and use cultural dimensions – categories with which we can compare different cultures – as a tool to understand one another. By interacting with this tool, we will explore the similarities and differences within the group and compare this to national tendencies. Through exploration of this topic, you will be better equipped to understand the nuances of intercultural collaboration and communicate more efficiently and effectively at home and abroad.

Skills Workshop: Preventing Mental Health Issues and Burn-Out in Student Engagement - Wednesday Session

Time: 3:30 p.m. - 5 p.m. CET

Venue: Room C318, Ground Floor. Access through 17 rue de la Sorbonne, Centre Sorbonne.

Instructors: Nova Ly and Angèle Hidiroglou

Nova Ly is a European project manager at Animafac, coordinator for the European projects Wise and European Step. Animafac is a student organisation network who helps student during their engagement. They have a deep understanding of the project lifecycle and possess specific knowledge in fighting against discrimination, particularly gender-based violence, racism, and disability issues.

Description:

An interactive workshop on preventing risks for mental health during student engagement. Engagement is very interesting for students and have a lot of benefits for them individually and professionally. However, when you are passionate it is sometimes difficult to identify mental health issues. This workshop will help engaged students in Europe to take care of their mental health.

Social & Cultural Programme (Optional)

© Pascal Levy

Time: from 4:30 p.m. CET

Venue: If you registered for a visit on Thursday, the coordinator of the visit will send you all details, including the meeting point, via email.

Description: Our Local Task Force students have organised visits to museums, and other notable sites, sharing their insights to make your experience even more enjoyable. In addition to these guided visits, you can also find tips for self-guided visits in the area in the social guide created by the Paris 1 Local Task Force.

Visit 1: Grande Galerie de l'Évolution at the Museum of Natural History and light festival at the Jardin des Plantes

With Amélie Lin and Raul Gomez Hernandez

Immerse yourself in the wonders of biodiversity at the Grande Galerie de l'Évolution, known for its grand glass roof and majestic animals seemingly frozen in time. Admission is free for visitors under 25 and €13 for others. After your visit, enjoy a peaceful stroll through the Jardin des Plantes, and if night has fallen, let yourself be enchanted by its seasonal light festival "En voie d'illumination: Lumières de la nature."

Visit 2: Literary walk in Saint-Michel

With Marie-France Lawson & Zineb Mellal

Embark on a literary journey through the poetic heart of Saint-Michel, where the spirit of Parisian writers still lingers in the air. Step into the legendary Shakespeare & Company, a haven for readers and wanderers from around the world, and explore the charming San Francisco Books, filled with second-hand gems. To complete this timeless walk, you may visit the Sainte-Chapelle on Île de la Cité, whose stained-glass windows bathe the Gothic arches in celestial light (free for EU residents under 26, €13 otherwise).

Visit 3: 100 Years of Art Deco at the Museum of Decorative Arts

With Abigaëlle Vigier and Julie Hombert

Explore the centenary exhibition celebrating Art Deco at the MAD, featuring a section dedicated to the legendary Orient Express and the re-creation of a 1926 Art Deco train cabin, including detailed models of the future train. This display offers a glimpse into both the glamour of the past and the innovation of modern craftsmanship. Admission is free for visitors under 26 and €15 for others. Continue your artistic journey with a visit to La Samaritaine, an architectural gem at the crossroads of Art Nouveau and Art Deco, renowned for its enchanting Christmas window displays.

Visit 4: Tyler Mitchell Exhibition at the Maison Européenne de la Photographie

With Naomie Kilahuli-Okol

Step into the luminous world of Tyler Mitchell at the Maison Européenne de la Photographie. His portraits and landscapes celebrate beauty, identity, and memory, blending dreamlike colour with intimate storytelling. After the visit, unwind over a drink in a vintage or jazz-inspired setting: either Fréquence, a lively bar and tapas spot known for its vinyl décor, or Le 1905, a hidden cocktail bar with the atmosphere of a Parisian jazz club.

Contact for questions: email Abigaëlle Vigier (Abigaelle.Vigier@etu.univ-paris1.fr) and Naomie Kilahuli-Okol (Naomie.Kilahuli-Okol@etu.univ-paris1.fr)

Closing forum

© Pascal Levy

Time: 9:30 a.m. - 10:45 a.m. CET and 11:15 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. CET

Venue: Room 1, Stairs M, Centre Panthéon, 12 Place du Panthéon 75005 Paris.

Description: The Closing Forum will provide an opportunity to explore in greater depth the results of the previous day's collaborative workshop and synthesise the outcomes to better understand the added value of student engagement structures within Una Europa, as well as identify opportunities for improvement. Participants will also reflect on the skills they gained from the skills workshop, the highlights of the sessions, and the good practices shared throughout the sessions. Finally, based on the key takeaways, our graphic facilitator will create a Student Engagement Board that attendees will be able to view during the event and receive afterwards.

Coffee & Snack Break

Time: 10:45 a.m. - 11:15 a.m. CET

Venue: Appartement Décanal, 4th floor. Centre Panthéon, 12 Place du Panthéon 75005.

Lunch

Time: 12:30 p.m. - 2 p.m.

Venue: Appartement Décanal, 4th floor. Centre Panthéon, 12 Place du Panthéon 75005.

Acknowledgments

We would like to express our sincere thanks to: Our university alliance Una Europa, Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, who is hosting this year's Student Congress and the European Union for providing funding.

We would also like to thank all workshop hosts and guest lecturers, in particular the members of the Afev and Animafac organisations, as well as staff members from our partner universities, for their valuable contributions to this event.

A special thank you goes to our volunteers from the Paris 1 Una Europa Local Task Force, the Una Europa local team, and all other local teams at Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne for their guidance and support in making this event possible.

The Una Europa team at Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne
